

“Are Those Your Words?” The Sensitivity of and Solutions to Plagiarism

A NYS TESOL NYC Region SALON

January 18, 2012
7:00pm - 9:00pm
Upper West Side of Manhattan

Salons are a NYS TESOL membership benefit!

There is only a small fee of $5.00 to cover the refreshment costs.

Not a penny more!

Please pay in cash when you arrive.

Happy New Year! It seems like the perfect time to address the age-old issue of plagiarism which still makes the news and challenges us as educators!

The Salon will be facilitated by the NYC Region Co-Chairs Elaine Roberts and Tamara Kirson and will take place in a private home.

As promised, the Salon will be laid-back, kick-off-your-shoes, meet, learn, drink wine, eat cheese and feel happy to be part of NYS TESOL!

To keep the Salons intimate, there is room for a limited number of participants, members-only. If you need to renew your membership or wish to join NYS TESOL, now's the time! Here's the link to make it easy to do:

Please understand that the sooner you RSVP, the greater the likelihood there will be space. If you cannot attend this Salon, there will be others ahead.

For the January 18 Salon
RSVP the first moment you can!

When you RSVP, we will provide directions.

Please bring your interest, enthusiasm, participation,
and samples of student plagiarism, if you wish.
