

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The 31st Annual

Applied Linguistics Conference

Sponsored by

NYS TESOL Applied Linguistics, Higher Education & Teacher Education SIGs

Saturday, April 17th, 2010

Teachers College, Columbia University

New York, New York

Theme:

Strengthening Classroom Practices: The Link Between Research and Application

We invite proposals for 40-minute presentations (30 minute discussion and 10 minute Q&A) on original research or pedagogical practices related to applied linguistics and/or classroom practices in the ESL/EFL field. We also invite proposals for poster presentations which will be displayed for a 2-hour block of time. Poster presentations are intended to be a format for reports of work in progress. Preference will be given to proposals related to the conference theme. Paper and poster selection will be competitive. ALL PROPOSALS MUST BE E-MAILED.

In your email, please include:

- A one-page summary without identifying information
- A one-page summary with name, address, affiliation, and e-mail address
- A fifty-word summary for the program book
- A list of any technology requirements
- “AL Conf Paper Proposal” or “AL Conf Poster Presentation” in the subject line
